

LBJ CONSULTANTS RECRUITMENT SUPPORT

Finding the best employee isn't always an easy process. We have listed some of the benefits that choosing the best new employee can bring to your business by using our support.

- You will slash the costs of the hiring process.
- You will save valuable resources by using LBJ Consultants to carry out your recruitment.
- You won't have to deal with the damage that a bad hire can do to your company.
- You will preserve the morale of your internal teams.
- You will protect your image as an employer.
- You won't miss out on good candidates.
- You don't have to train an employee who won't stick around.
- You avoid giving passwords and confidential company information to people you can't trust.

What are the benefits of using LBJ Consultants to fill your vacancy(s)?

We have the skills and experience to match your requirements with the best candidates.

Other benefits of using LBJ Consultants include:

- We cover advertising costs.
- We sift all CV's presented.
- We hold 1st stage telephone interviews.
- We pass top candidates for face-to-face interviews.
- We will support clients at interview if required*
- We will draft bespoke offer and rejection letters.
- We will draft Statement of Main Terms if required*

The hiring process is difficult. LBJ Consultants can provide the best candidates by implementing detailed employee screening processes, including criminal background checks, reference checks, verification checks (for employment, education, and professional certification), skills tests, personality assessments, and targeted interview questions.

These methods, combined with a clear picture of what the job at hand entails and what the company culture should be, we will help you find the right hire the first time around.

